My Word! Dorothy Larimer

GENTLE READER, this is not written from our hostess. There were, we must admit, a few hints that we tucked away in the suitcase of all those beautiful nightgowns, bed jackets and robes. We successfully resisted the temptation, deciding this was one grand opening we could not miss without typewriter or camera.

THIS COLUMN is composed of bits picked up by Friday, while we were still enjoying the pseudo-famous status conferred upon us about to enter the hospital. It is about a grand time it seemed to me to spoil it by going to work.

PHYLLIS LYON, 955 Ventura, had breakfast at Tiffany's in San Francisco with KCBS Celebrity Club Peterson Friday morning. She was the prize she won for being why she wanted to break out there with Peterson: "I would like to have breakfast there if I had breakfast there. I would like to have breakfast there if I had breakfast there."

Albany Police arrested a suspect in the pigeon drop extortion of more than $300 from Amanda Becker of 635 Madison Ave. on Oct. 7.

Police Chief Ralph Jensen and Inspector Art Smith arrested Miss Brown at the Villa Motel at 1155 San Pablo just as a fire broke out and fire engines, sirens screaming, descended on the motel to fight a $6,000 blaze.

Police suspect the woman as being one of two who victimized the Albany woman by offering to split $6,000 with her. They escaped with Mrs. Becker's money which she was asked to produce to show she could support herself for 90 days.

Other pigeon drop charges against the women were made by San Francisco and San Jose police. Albany police turned her over to San Jose on an alleged case there Oct. 5.

Third Annual Roaring 20s Dance Saturday, Nov. 6

Grab your raccoon coat, get your straw hat, and direct your dancing feet to Veterans Memorial building in Albany Saturday, Nov. 6, for the third annual Roaring Twenties dance.

Sponsored by the Pachyderms of the Albany Republican Assembly this event has, in two years, become one of the best-attended functions and most eagerly-awaited social events of the year.

Roaring Twenties Chairman Dorothy Davis has a committee of more than 40 people working feverishly and enthusiastically to make this year's event as gigantic as the others. Committee Chairmen include Bill McKenna, publicity; Shirley Royal, special entertainment; Joe Egenberger, and Jim Royal, "Speakeasy;" Eldon Wolf, technical advisor; Jack Heasley, special guests; Bill Davis and Shirley Parr, decorations; Lorraine Egenberger, refreshments; Helen McKenna, tickets.

Plans for the gala event include live music by one of the area's top jazz bands, door prizes, Charleston dance contest, best 20's costume prize, speakeasy, refreshments and plenty of sandwiches and snacks at 1920 prices.

Chairman Davis says, "The reason this dance has proven to be so popular and successful is because it gives all of us the opportunity to dress up and step out to listen and dance to happy music and enjoy the company of our neighbors and friends all for 49 cents!"

Tickets will be available from one of the 25 ticket salesmen or may be obtained at the door on the evening of Nov. 6.

Albany Boy Beaten

Joey Alvist, 1139 Cornell Ave., is at Highland hospital with a fractured skull resultant of a beating by a gang of invading out of town toughs who descended on a weenie roast and swimming party of Albany High School boys at the beach in back of Albany Race Track last Sunday.

Joey, a senior at Albany High School, also sustained a cut across his right eye that required six stitches.

He is the foster son of the Frank Flerros, who received him through the Jackie program five years ago.

According to the report, phoned to the Times by the boy's foster family, the attacking gang carried clubs and knives.

Andy King Places In Five Swimming Events

Andy King, Albany high senior, placed in five events at the A.A.U. meet which was held in Livermore Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 16 and 17.

In a competition involving 16 teams and approximately 25 swimmers in each event, Andy placed second in the 50 yard free style and the 100 yard breast stroke; and placed third in the 100 yard free style, the 200 yard I.M. and the 100 yard butterfly. This placed Andy, who swims for West Costa Piranhas, as first runner-up in overall individual points for the meet.

Groundbreaking Enthusiastic Turnout Sparks Dedication

No one seemed to mind the blazing sun of one of the hottest days of the year as a jubilant crowd gathered to applaud the groundbreaking ceremonies for the new buildings at Albany High School last Sunday afternoon.

A brief and sprightly band concert by the Albany High School Band, led by Ernest Douglas, introduced the program. The colors, presented by Boy Scouts John Kister and Keven Keck, representing Troop 12, and John Seidel and Tim Patton, representing Troop 19, formally opened the dedication. Rev. Marshal P. Lucky of the Albany First Baptist Church pronounced the invocation.

Board of Education President Charles Pinkham introduced Board members Mrs. Rae Volz, Max Kelly and Robert Niels, Superintendent of Schools Kenneth Forry, Mayor Lewis Howell, Councilman Joel Parker, Principal Harry Price, Dean of Boys William Feeney, Dean of Girls Geneva Pond, Chairman of Bond Boosters Barry Runnion, Jr., PTA President Mrs. George Jaekle, Albany High School Student Body President Robert Sheldon, Architect John Lyon Reid, and Contractor S. J. Amoroso.

Asked to step "forward and center" Editor Dorothy Larimer, of the Albany Times, was commended for the coverage in the Times; a factor which played one of the major roles in promoting the successful bond issue.

Pinkham referred to the position of the school administration as a "delightful dilemma" because "so many people must be thanked for so much."

Student Body President Robert Sheldon stated that although his present senior class would not be present to occupy the new buildings, following classes will benefit, and the entire student body wished to express thanks to Albany voters.

Mrs. Rae Volz, vice president of the Board of Education, gave the dedication speech.

A gold shovel was presented to Pinkham by Contractor Amoroso, and assisted by Mrs. Volz and Robert Sheldon, Pinkham lifted the earth to start the foundation for the two new structures; he theatre-arts vocational building and the work shop.

And despite the heat, the crowd gave the act enthusiastic applause.

HERE TONIGHT—Oakland Attorney Malcolm Champlin will be guest speaker at a meeting of Albany Republican Assembly at 8 p.m. tonight at Cornell school cafeteria. His topic will be "Crime in the Cities and What We Can Do About It."

James, El Cerrito; Opal Lafferty, San Leandro; Harriet Munger, San Leandro; Christine Peterson, Alameda; Thyra Schaefer, Orinda; Genevieve B. Skells, Alameda; Gladys Tabb, Tiburon.

MEMBERS PARTY Members of the 49ers Dance club will hold a special Halloween dance party from 8-11 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 30, at Grove Recreation Center, 1730 Oregon St., Berkeley. Costumes are optional. Men and women 49 years and older are welcome.

Mrs. Rae Volz Speaks at Dedication

Mrs. Rae Volz, after 10 years of dedicated service as a member of the Albany Board of Education, has resigned effective Nov. 1. Playing a significant role in raising the academic level of Albany schools, during the 10 years, it was fitting that she was the principal speaker at the groundbreaking ceremonies Sunday, for the new buildings of Albany High School. The excellence of the education program in Albany is due to the untiring perseverance of the fine administrative body who have consistently sparked the community to co-operative effort in building and maintaining the city's schools. Mrs. Volz has played a major role, as vice president of the Board of Education.

Her speech at the dedications is printed below in its entirety:

It's very kind of you to allow me to say thank you, drop an observation and then say "adieu." The fact that so many of you good people in the audience have come here is testimony to your genuine interest. The short ceremony today ushers in a project we have looked forward to for some time. You and your friends have always shared this anticipation with us. I'm happy we can be together!

I would like to observe with you that education is not just a "sometimes" thing. It is real and ever-present. We, and particularly young people, hasten to add

Reconsideration of Zoning Request Passed by Council At Hot Session

Not only the weather was hot at the Monday night Albany City Council session when tempers flared and a requested parliamentary ruling requested and given by City Attorney Larry D. Saler failed to bring cooling results.

A letter from Jerome Blank, 1530 Solano Ave., requesting reconsideration of the zoning request on the lot south of 737 Adams Street, denied last week by a tied vote, resulted in a motion for reconsideration after Councilman Richard Clark made a second motion to appeal to sustain the chair on the reconsideration motion and his motion was lost 3-2 with Mayor Lewis Howell, Councilman Joe Egenberger and Councilman Joel Parker voting negative.

The motion for reconsideration, made by Egenberger, passed 3-2 with Councilman George Hein and Clark voting against it.

Saler's clarification of the parliamentary procedure pointed out the difficulty of determining whether a tie vote is a prevailing or no vote. Members of a City Council can perform a procedure which will get to the heart of the matter. If there is no prevailing side then the majority can make a motion to reconsider; this to be determined by the Mayor. It is within his prerogative to reconsider with a 2-2 tie vote.

Egenberger then moved to set the final vote on the issue over for one week so that interested citizens could be heard from in the interim and Council could study the issue further.

On the question argument grew heated when Mayor Howell charged the Albany Chamber of Commerce of holding ad hoc meetings with two Council members present and voting on the Resolution (printed in the bar). The Mayor said: "You cannot wear two hats. They write letters to themselves and then come down and vote on them."

Asking permission of the Council to speak, William Garren, president of the Chamber of Commerce, answered the charge by stating that the meeting held by the Chamber could not be considered "ad hoc." Notice of the

"Sing Out For Books" is the theme of annual Children's Book Week beginning Oct. 31 and ending Nov. 6.

Celebrate the week with a visit to the children's section of the Albany Library—with or without the younger generation—but preferably with them. An introduction to books is one of the most important contacts a child can make.

This is children's week at your local library.

Trees Anyone?

by Shirley Parr

Have you been thinking about trees this week? Have you decided you want one in your parking strip? Have you talked to your neighbors about beautifying your whole block with trees? No? Well, you'd better get started, because others are thinking and responding.

This is how the plan for the tree planting program in Albany will work.

Several pilot blocks will be chosen. How? The people on the block are actively interested in planting trees, and have indicated their interest by calling us. When a block is chosen because of the response, a neighborhood meeting will be set up on the block. At this time trees will be shown to the group which can be planted in a strip of the width of the parking strip on that street. The trees are listed, also, for adaptability to this area in a new city ordinance prepared by the Albany Park and Recreation Commission.

The vote of the majority of the group will decide the tree chosen to line that block. Not everyone will have to buy a tree. Those who wish to participate will buy their own tree, cheaper, because of buying in a group. The city will plant the tree, spray and trim it. The homeowner will water it.

Free expert advice will be offered on the care of trees, and free advice on which plants will complement the chosen tree will be given at the block meetings.

If you want your block to be at the top of the list, call Mrs. Eldon Parr, President of Hill and Dale Women's Club of El Cerrito at 526-5847 or Bud Rooney at the Recreation Department at 526-6116.

P.S. Don't worry. All the troublesome camphor trees in our city are being removed, and they are not on the approved list!

meeting went out to 130 members; it was the regular meeting held the last Monday of the month. He suggested the Mayor withdraw the "ad hoc charge." He added that Clark and Hein were members of the Chamber.

Basically the request of Blank's that has been the center of controversy during the past weeks, was the rezoning of commercial area to CE-4 which would permit an apartment house in what Blank termed "a neighborhood of residential character." Arguments against the spot zoning change was that the area was zoned for highly oriented commercial development and should not be zoned "out of existence." In rebuttal the fact was brought out that under the present zoning conditions, property owners could do nothing else with their property but sell it to San Pablo businessmen for commercial expansion.

In other matters, Council adopted five resolutions; referred a letter on Fact magazine to the Albany Library Board of Trustees; referred an application for alcoholic beverage license by Russell W. Kiere, Jr., 755 San Pablo Ave., to Police Chief Ralph Jensen; dedicated the week of Nov. 8-13 to Associated Students-Merritt College Homecoming Week; held over for one week action on the appointment of Mrs. Ruth McNair as acting head librarian for the Albany Library pending recommendation by City Administrator James Turner; and moved to set up a meeting with the Chamber of Commerce finance committee to explain and amplify financial statements received by the Council.

During the Good of the City, Jeffery Schetz of University Village, spoke saying that he represented VOW (Villagers Opposed to War) and he wished Council would join with them in a position against the Oakland "Wall" erected during the last anti-Vietnam protest. He also requested "less hyperbole" in resolutions against peace demonstrations. Principally, what he requested was access to the recreation building for a meeting of the organization for Nov. 17.

Council explained that arrangements were made with the Recreation Department, as they had no way of knowing the exact schedule of operations in the department.

A district and community can almost certainly select the type they want. Like a good machine, if you want a system of quality, good lines, impressive size and one that gets you somewhere—it means investing wisely in the first place. Your Board has earnestly tried to do this. After you have the machine in your possession, it's my opinion that it needs a good home. Its home, not just buildings with walls and roofs, requires constant care. We must frequently look under the hood of our machine to check the moving parts. The program must be one the staff can realistically discharge. Our machine should be kept lubricated. Oil it with your optimism, encouragement and constructive ideas. If you are pleased, say so; if you are puzzled or unhappy, mention that too.

A good or excellent educational system takes real effort and constant watching and planning. For the moment, let's call it a large machine.

HOW ABOUT SARAH BROCKWAY, Myrtle McLean's pretty assistant at City Hall? She left work Friday night at 5 p.m., had a six pound, one ounce baby girl, Deborah Ann, at 8:15 Monday morning at Alta Bates. Sarah and her husband, Kent, live at 629 Madison and have a son, David, 4½.

JOHNNIE GRISHAM from the City Engineer's office is home from Alta Bates following surgery and hopes to return to work in about six weeks.

plans an exhibit of photographs of new city buildings from the time of the groundbreaking until the buildings are completed, to be on display at the dedication. Photographers are Firemen Frank Heaney and Tom Oakley.

LUCKY 13 will be closed for Friday night teen dances beginning this Friday until further notice, according to Owner Harold Peterson, who started remodeling the front of the building Monday. The Friday night teen parties will resume as soon as the $10,000 job has been completed. Peterson said the new front will be of stone and multi-colored pastel aluminum. Sounds great.

ALTON WILLIAMS of El Cerrito was telling how Citizen Band radio assisted in apprehending a fleeing theft suspect last Thursday. He was eating lunch in his car in the Oakland Hills about 3 p.m. when he heard an emergency call from a man on the citizen band who was following the suspect. Williams called another amateur radio operator who telephoned police. The suspect was arrested in Emeryville and is being held by Oakland police for investigation of passing a worthless check.

Knapp's 1089 Sets Veteran Benefit Saturday, Nov. 6

Frank Knapp

Frank and Lucille Knapp will observe their 34th year in business at the 1089 Club at 1089 San Pablo Saturday, Nov. 6, with another of their veterans' benefits during which all proceeds from 11 a.m. to 2 a.m. will be turned over to Legion post 292 for veterans' welfare.

Prize tickets, entitling each purchaser to three chances on about $600 in valuable gifts, are available for $1 from Legion members, at the 1089, at the Cottage and many other business establishments.

Italian lunches and dinners will be available all day at 50 cents per plate and all proceeds from the bar will be turned over to the Legion post of which Frank is a member.

The benefit is held traditionally on the Saturday closest to Veterans' Day. Frank is a veteran of World War I. His son, Warren, also a member of post 292, is aorean veteran.

Many items of comfort for hospitalized veterans as well as funds to provide entertainment for them have already resulted from the Knapps' generosity.

Frank and Lucille started at the 1089 address in the grocery business with a young chap named Lew Howell working for them. Lew, now mayor of Albany and an executive of Park and Shop Markets, is proud that Lucille is an employee of Park and Shop. The business became a night club the night beer came back and has been going strong ever since.

Frank has invited the public to attend the benefit.

Masons Meet

The Albany Masonic Lodge 686 F&AM will meet at 8 p.m., Nov. 2, at the Albany Masonic Temple, 533 San Pablo Ave., for a stated meeting.

Worshipful Master C. E. Noble asks all members to attend and extends an invitation to all Masons. Refreshments will be served.

ARM AND SHOULDER PAIN

Dr. Graeme F. Joyce
Chiropractor

Hardly a week passes without someone coming into the office complaining of pain in the shoulder and upper arm that may or may not extend into the hand or fingers. Most of them have already been diagnosed as having bursitis. Various things have been tried for relief, from heat on the shoulder to injections. When nothing has succeeded and the pain is still unbearable, many of these such people go to a chiropractor as a last resort.

There are various types of shoulder and arm conditions, and most often there is one primary cause, a spinal (vertebral) misplacement that is pinching or pressing upon one of the nerves that lead into the affected area. The disorder is at first acute neuralgia and if not corrected becomes chronic neuritis or arthritis and will be much harder to correct. If a chiropractor is consulted when any such condition exists, many days of suffering for the patient will be eliminated and the cost of getting well will be reduced to a minimum.—Adv.

A special cottage cheese and sour cream promotion, called "Make Easy Meals," runs in the East Bay area Oct. 13-Nov. 13, it was announced by the American Dairy Association of California, and the East Bay Producers Milk Council, along with milk dealers in the East Bay.

The month-long dairy foods promotion will feature easy meal making with sour cream and cottage cheese, plus other dairy products, stated Duane Louis, Borden Company, San Francisco, chairman of the event committee.

Advertising and promotion will utilize most East Bay newspapers, radio and billboards placed by American Dairy Association, the East Bay Producers Milk Council and individual dairy distributors.

Each person will also receive dairy recipe books as well. Special Special "Chip 'n Dip Server" premiums will be offered by distributors on home delivery route during the event.

Attractive cottage cheese and sour cream recipe books, in color, are available free to the readers of area newspapers, simply by sending-in a card to this newspaper requesting a set, mentioning the dairy with whom they do business.

Dear Mrs. Larimer:
We are proud to see Albany support the Peralta Colleges in the recent bond election. Because of its successful passage each citizen can now look forward to the great opportunities available to each community. I am convinced that the Albany Times was instrumental in helping to get the message across to our local voters. The articles and pictures printed aroused voter interest in many homes we could not personally reach. Please accept the thanks of our committee and myself for a contribution which is priceless. Sincerely, CLAY BERLING Albany Chairman P.S. Funds are still needed to defray expenses involved in the campaign. Any help in getting this message out would be appreciated. Contributions may be sent to CITIZENS FOR PERALTA COLLEGES, 630 Talbot Avenue, Albany, Calif.

Editor, The Times:
We wish to express our appreciation for the publicity given both by picture and news item on "Back to School Night" at Albany High School. The results were gratifying. Sincerely, MRS. W. H. CORING MRS. PETER SANDRETTO Chairmen, Back to School Night, AHS PTA

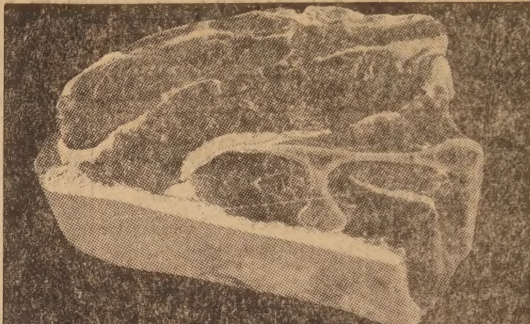

Editor and Publisher:
The members of Hill and Dale, the Albany Park and Recreation Commission, and the other city officials involved in the tree planting program wish to thank the Times for the excellent coverage of our plan in last week's Times. Your cooperation is invaluable and so gratefully appreciated. Sincerely yours, SHIRLEY PARR President

It is that time of year when we begin to enter the "Holiday Season." Halloween, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas and New Years. These are the happy days. These are also the days when we become less vigilant of safety practices. Many tragedies during the holiday season could have been prevented, were some people to exercise common sense and sound judgment. Let us then look first to Halloween. If your child enters into "Trick or Treat" with a costume it will be well to be sure the clothing is not of the loose fitting type. Every child wishes to carry a pumpkin or goobin light on this evening. Above all do not let them use candles or any open flame device in these accessories. An adult should accompany the children on their rounds and not be beyond any distance where they cannot hear a command if you should issue one. Young adults should not take part in these activities and above all they should not wear masks of any kind. Leave this night to the "little ones."

SENIOR CITIZENS

846 Masonic Ave.

by Emma Claymore

The Bazaar held at the Senior Center last Wednesday was a success financially and socially. That new piano seems to be a reality instead of a dream. It should be on hand for the Christmas party.

Lucky winner of the bedspread contest was Mary Welp. Everyone agreed it could not have gone to a more deserving person. The next big event for the center is the dinner and envelope drawing with Albany Lions for the blind on Thursday, Oct. 28. Members may get tickets from Minnie Ingraham and Lions are asked to contact John (Tiny) Kampe.

Don't forget the lecture series. Yesterday's topic was John Muir.

The next business meeting will be from 1-3 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 2. At this meeting the slate of officers selected by the nominating committee will be presented. Nominations will also be accepted from the floor.

For information call 526-1601.

Bank of America Stages Contest on New Cars

The fall showing of 1966 model automobiles offers California drivers more than a chance to see the latest in car designs—they will also have the opportunity to win a 23-foot cabin cruiser or a two-week expense-paid trip anywhere in the world.

The opportunity is presented by "66 Sweepstakes," a contest sponsored by Bank of America. In addition to the first prize of the yacht or trip for two, more than 5,000 prizes will be awarded, according to Kenneth V. Larkin, vice president in charge of Timeplan administration in the bank's San Francisco head office. Three second prizes of a color television, stereo, AM-FM console will be awarded, as will seven third prizes of a transistor TV set. Other prizes include cameras, luggage and radios.

The contest is open to any driver possessing a California license, Larkin said. "To enter, simply visit one of the more than 2,000 auto dealers offering the bank's Timeplan lending service, look over the new model cars, and fill out an entry blank."

Larkin added that there's nothing to buy, "although the first place winner will receive a bonus of $2,500 in Bank of America travelers' checks if he purchases on or before Nov. 27 a 1966 car financed by a Timeplan loan."

The bonus also applies if the words "Bank of America Timeplan Auto Financing" are attached to the winning entry blank.

"Automobile dealers taking part in the contest are displaying a sign to that effect," Larkin stated.

The contest opened Oct. 15 and all entries must be in the hands of a Timeplan auto dealer no later than Nov. 27. Winners will be determined by a December drawing and will be notified by mail.

Recognition Tea

From 3 to 6 p.m. on Wednesday, October 27, the Berkeley Red Cross will have a Recognition Tea honoring volunteers who have given many hundreds of hours of devoted service.
